K. Members retiring who hold unexpired office on the Board of Governors at the time of their retirement shall retain that office for their elected term of office.

ARTICLE VI. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

A. The nominating committee shall consist of six (6) members and shall be selected by the Board of Governors at the first special meeting after the annual meeting. Membership of the Nominating Committee will be composed of at least four (4) fellows. The committee shall serve from the time of its selection until the next annual meeting of the Alliance. Members of the Nominating Committee are not barred from becoming nominees for office nor from succeeding themselves on the Committee. This Committee shall select the nominees for all elected offices of the Alliance and will indicate the officers for which nominated. The proposed ballots shall then be sent to the Secretary not later than sixty (60) days preceding the annual meeting for distribution to the voting membership by first-class mail. Appointed representation to the Board of Governors from the DC, EHO/BEE Officer Corps, MSC, NC, and the Optometry Section will be selected by their respective corps and their name given to the nominating committee at the annual meeting of the Alliance each year.

B. The Secretary shall insure that ballots are mailed to voting members so as to reach voting members not later than thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting. Space shall be provided on the ballots for write-in nominations. Ballots shall be returned to the Nominating Committee at the earliest possible date prior to the annual meeting.

C. The Nominating Committee shall count the ballots and furnish the results to the Chairman of the Board of Governors prior to the annual business meeting. The slate of officers will be voted on by the membership. Ties will be resolved by a simple majority vote of the voting members present at the meeting.

ARTICLE VII. COMMITTEES

STANDING COMMITTEES

A. In addition to the Nominating Committee as provided in Article VI of these By-Laws, the standing committees shall be as indicated below. Committee members are appointed at the discretion of the President. The President will designate one member of the committee as chairperson.

1. CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS COMMITTEE. This committee shall be a fact-finding committee of members pertaining to the Constitution and By-Laws resolutions. The committee shall study proposed amendments to Constitution and By-Laws and make its recommendations to the Alliance.

2. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE. This committee will review all applications for membership, secure whatever information available concerning the applicant, and submit its recommendation to the President for appropriate action. It shall be responsible for initiating the programs and activities designed to maintain and increase membership in the Alliance. This committee will also act in an advisory capacity to the Board of Governors in matters relating to the establishment eligibility requirements for all classes of membership.

3. AWARDS COMMITTEE. This committee shall obtain and review all nominations for whatever awards or honorary citations are presented by the Alliance and submit its recommendations to the Board of Governors. The Chairman will maintain a permanent chronological record of awards recipients and awards criteria.

4. PROGRAM COMMITTEE. This committee shall be responsible to the President for all arrangements incident to the annual meeting or any other scheduled meeting to include scheduling, agenda content, and recommendation for guest speakers.

5. EDUCATION COMMITTEE. The education committee shall be responsible for organizing medical education programs for Air National Guard medical personnel with the goals to maximize Air National Guard medical readiness and to keep abreast of the advancements in the field of Aerospace Medicine.

6. SPECIAL COMMITTEES. The President may appoint whatever special committees as he may deem necessary with such membership as he may consider appropriate. Such special committees shall be appointed only for the duration of the appointing President's tenure of office, but may be continued at the option of the succeeding President.

ARTICLE VIII. DUES

A. Dues, fees, and assessments may be levied by a simple majority vote of a quorum of the members present at scheduled or special meeting. Those members in Retired and Honorary status are excused from paying dues.

B. Dues are due 1 January and prepayment is encouraged at the annual AMSUS meeting. Members who fall two (2) years in arrears in the payment of dues will be notified of the delinquency in writing by certified mail by the Treasurer and thereafter be allowed sixty (60) days to make such payment. Failure to do so in the allotted time will result in suspension from the Alliance.

C. Members who are suspended from the Alliance for non-payment of dues may be reinstated by paying current annual dues. This reinstatement shall be subject to the approval of the Membership Committee and the Board of Governors.

D. Life Membership dues offer members the opportunity to simplify paying their annual dues with a one time dues payment, as well as providing the opportunity to contribute financially to the overall welfare and mission of the Alliance. The treasurer will note in his annual report the members who have financially contributed to the welfare of the Alliance through Life Membership dues.

Life Membership dues are a one time payment of $250.00, which will be invested in a special interest bearing device by the treasurer and only the annual interest may be used for the annual operating expenses of the Alliance.

ARTICLE IX. FINANCES

A. The fiscal year shall begin on 1 January and shall end on 31 December each year. The Secretary and Treasurer of the Alliance shall furnish surety bonds in such amount as the Board of Governors shall determine; the cost to be paid by the Alliance. Checks may be signed by the Treasurer or by the Secretary with the written approval of the Treasurer.

B. The Treasurer shall maintain accounts in the name of the Alliance at a bank designated by him in his own home area. Three (3) accounts shall be maintained: a checking account, a general purpose savings account, and a special interest bearing Life Membership dues device. Normally no more than five hundred (500) dollars shall be kept in the checking account, with the remainder of the funds deposited in an interest bearing general purpose savings account. Alternatively, a single interest bearing checking account combining the checking and general purpose savings accounts shall be used at the direction of the Board of Governors.

C. The Treasurer's report shall be audited and approved by the Board of Governors prior to the annual meeting.

ARTICLE X. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

A. In all matters not covered by the Constitution or By-Laws, the provisions of Robert's Rules of Order will prevail.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENTS

A. Any member proposing amendment to the By-Laws or Constitution must submit the same to the Secretary at least (60) days prior to the annual meeting or any specially called meeting. Upon a simple majority vote by a quorum of voting members present at an annual or special meeting, they will become binding upon the membership.
